Remembering the greatest show on earth

From 27 July to 9 September all eyes were upon Britain, as we welcomed the world to the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games. The splendour of Beijing in 2008 had given us much to live up to, and the pressure to deliver was immense; yet it can fairly be said that London 2012 was a complete triumph.

So it is with pride and pleasure that we announce a Miniature Sheet featuring stunning photography of four iconic moments from London 2012, together with the official emblems of both Team GB and ParalympicsGB and an inspirational quote from Lord Sebastian Coe, Chairman of LOCOG, in its border.

The exploits of the athletes alone would have ensured that these events will live long in the memory. Yet the world also saw the pride, ambition and ability of our nation, from Danny Boyle's epoch-making Opening Ceremony all the way through to the closing of the Paralympics.

As befits such an important Special issue, the Miniature Sheet is also available on a First Day Cover and is complemented by a richly informative and lavishly illustrated Presentation Pack; all of which make the perfect way to remember the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.
