A flight of fancy through the UK's waterfowl world

Dive into a world of water-filled, web-footed, feather-winged wonder.

This charming collection of 10 stamps celebrates the vibrant and varied species of ducks that grace our nation's rivers, estuaries and coastlines. Captivating photography captures them in their natural habitats – flying, floating, waddling and roosting.

A fascinating and beautifully illustrated Presentation Pack delves into the characteristics of each species featured and reveals the importance of ducks to the conservation of our wetland wildlife and sustainable food production.

Take a deep dabble into the aquatic antics of these elegant members of the waterfowl family.
